

It is my oppinion that the media consolodation that is now being contemplated should be delayed, with allowances made for public notification and debate.